Sports 4 All Foundation's First Old-Fashioned Field Day

Nashville-Sports 4 All Foundation (S4AF) is sponsoring its first old-fashioned field day on Vanderbilt University's campus, Friday, March 20, 2009 from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. The event is hosted by Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority and Kappa Sigma fraternity. Field day will be held at the Sports Club Field on the corner of 25th Ave. and Blakemore.

S4AF's mission: to improve the quality of life of individuals with disabilities by providing funding, equipment, programming and education to enable full participation in sports and recreation activities. Field day is an opportunity for local day service facilities that serve individuals with disabilities to come together for a day of fun recreational activities. This event serves as a "community day" for many of the facilities. It also serves as philanthropy service time for the sorority and fraternity.

Kappa Kappa Gamma and Kappa Sigma adopted S4AF as their local philanthropy last year. The two groups have volunteered to help S4AF do research, create brochures, sort inventory and create posters for Team S4AF, Sports 4 All's Country Music ½ Marathon Team.

"We are honored to have Sports 4 All as our local philanthropy," said Jess Bass, Kappa Kappa Gamma's philanthropy chairperson, "S4AF does so many wonderful things to help such an underserved population. We hope field day can become an annual event, so people with disabilities will have other opportunities to get out, be active and socialize with other groups."

Sports 4 All Foundation accepts new and gently used donated sports equipment and puts it back into the community through collaborations with non-profits serving those with disabilities to improve their quality of life. S4AF has provided equipment and funding to 15 agencies in 10 counties serving over one thousand people with disabilities combined.
