Waverly Ann Harris & Janey Smith Join Sports 4 All Foundation

Nashville – Sports 4 All Foundation (S4AF) is pleased to announce the addition of Waverly Ann Harris as Volunteer/Project Coordinator for Project H.E.A.L.T.H. and Janey Smith as Public Relations/Marketing Coordinator.

“I am happy to welcome Waverly Ann and Janey to the S4AF family,” said Kris Salisbury, Founder and CEO. “Each addition brings a fresh perspective on spreading our mission: to improve the quality of life of individuals with disabilities by providing funding, equipment, programming and education to enable full participation in sports and recreational activities.”

Harris, a native of Lewisburg, TN, graduated from Western Kentucky University in 2005 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology. She became immersed in the non-profit world after college by volunteering with AmeriCorps NCCC. From there she became the Community Marketing Coordinator at Wild Oats in Franklin, and she completed an internship with the non-profit Invisible Children in San Diego, CA. Harris has recently returned to Nashville after spending seven months in Kampala, Uganda running a recycling factory and creating jobs for local villagers.

Smith, of Birmingham, AL, graduated from Middle Tennessee State University in 2005 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Mass Communications. In 2002, she graduated from the University of Montevallo in Montevallo, AL with a Bachelor of Science degree in History. She completed three internships with McNeely, Pigott & Fox; AristoMedia; and Tennessee State Health Department. Smith volunteered with the foundation as a volunteer facilitator for Project H.E.A.L.T.H. and a member of Team S4AF, Sports 4 All’s Country Music ½ Marathon team, before joining the S4AF family.
